SC2 may order a valuation to determine the value of property proposed as collateral and charge the applicant for this valuation, and, if the valuation relates to a first lien on a residential property, will promptly give the applicant a copy of any such valuation, even if a loan does not close. The undersigned further acknowledges the applicant can pay for an additional valuation for its own use at its cost. The undersigned agrees and understands that SC2 and/or its affiliated companies will retain this Application and all supporting documents and information whether or not a loan closes.
